

Goldin Financial (00530) Wins Capital Weekly's "The Excellence of Listed Enterprise Awards 2013"

(Hong Kong, 21 November 2013) - Goldin Financial Holdings Limited ("Goldin Financial" or "the Group", HKEx stock code: 00530) is pleased to announce that it has been awarded "The Excellence of Listed Enterprise Awards 2013" by Capital Weekly, a reputable financial publication in Asia. The award recognizes listed enterprises in Hong Kong for their contributions to the economic development of the society. The key judging criteria of which this recognition is based upon are strategies of corporate activities, investor relations, corporate governance, and corporate social responsibilities. This year, Goldin Financial is honored to be selected as one of the 16 winning corporations to receive this award.

The award is a testament to Goldin Financial's strong commitment to our shareholders, and our continual effort in strengthening investor communications and corporate governance. Since establishment, Goldin Financial has transformed itself from a financial-focused company into a conglomerate with diversified businesses. While the development of our factoring business remains firmly on track, we have seized the opportunities to venture into the wine and real estate business in recent years. We firmly believe that these two new business sectors will continue to enhance the performance of the Group and bring value to our shareholders.

About Goldin Financial:

Listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, Goldin Financial is a Hong Kong-based enterprise specializing in factoring, real estate development and investment, vineyard and winery operation, wine trading and production. With an experienced international management team, Goldin Financial's business operations have now extended from Hong Kong and China to Europe and America.

With foresight and agility, the Group announced venturing into the factoring business in 2009 and is the first wholly foreign-owned commercial factoring company in the Shanghai region. The Group is a member of Factors Chain International, the global factoring industry's leading professional association, and provides domestic and international factoring services to medium-sized enterprises in China and Hong Kong.

Besides the factoring business, the Group is now also constructing Goldin Financial Global Centre, a grade A office complex in the "Energizing Kowloon East" project area in Kowloon Bay. Goldin Financial Global Centre will target international commercial tenants seeking A-grade office space. The boldly designed tower will also serve as the Group's new headquarter.

The Group also acquired the renowned 40-acre SLOAN Estate in Napa Valley, California in 2011 and 95% interest of three Bordeaux wineries Château Le Bon Pasteur, Château Rolland-Maillet and Château Bertineau St-Vincent, totaling 15 hectares of land in 2013. Besides the Group's own labels, Goldin Financial also trades top quality fine wines from the world's top brands.
